

K3 surfaces arising from arithmetic problems

Damiano Testa (Warwick University, UK)

Abstract:

In my talk I will present three different arithmetic problems. In all these problems, the easiest unknown case asks for rational points on K3 surfaces. I will show how to use the common features of these K3 surfaces to obtain geometric information about these surfaces and how in turn to use this information to obtain some insight on the initial problems.