

Power sum presentations of cubic forms, and generalizations

Kristian Ranestad (University of Oslo, Norway)

Abstract:

The notion of rank and its generalization, cactus rank, has on the one hand lead to construction of interesting varieties of power sum presentations, and on the other hand to analysis of so-called cactus varieties, a generalization of higher secant varieties. I shall discuss old and more recent results on this topic.