

Cylindrically bounded constant mean curvature surfaces in $H^2 * \mathbb{R}$

Laurent Mazet

Université de Marne-la-Vallée

Abstract:

The abstract is "In this talk, we present a classification result for constant mean curvature surfaces of $H^2 * \mathbb{R}$ that live in a vertical solid cylinder. Actually, we prove that these surfaces have to be rotationally invariant with respect to a vertical geodesic line."