

Prof. Jon Keating, FRS
University of Bristol

L-functions and Random Matrix Theory

I will give an overview of interplay between Random Matrices and the Theory of L-Functions. In particular, I will discuss the distribution of zeros and eigenvalues, moments, and extreme values. I will start with an introduction to the Riemann zeta-function and to the basic ideas underpinning Random Matrix Theory. The main aim then will be to explore the connections.