Title: Ergodicity and Classification of Partially Hyperbolic Systems

Andy Hammerlindl - University of Sydney

Abstract:

Recent years have seen the development of classification results for certain partially yperbolic systems in dimension three.

In this talk, I'll discuss how these results and can be used to describe the ergodic properties of these systems, and the exact ways in which these systems can fail to be ergodic.