

How to compute the local type of a modular form.

Ariel Pacetti
Universidad de Buenos Aires

Abstract: In this talk we will introduce the different local types of modular forms, and show a method to compute them in most cases. During the talk we will present some examples, show what the types are for elliptic curves and give an idea of the connection between modular forms and automorphic forms.