

On the asymptotic behavior of the scalar curvature functional

Christoph Böhm

Münster

Abstract:

The space of Riemannian metrics with fixed volume form is an infinite-dimensional symmetric space of noncompact type, when endowed with the L^2 -metric. We examine the asymptotic behavior of the scalar curvature function along a generic geodesic. This is joint work with Brian Clark.