

Symplectic geometry in degree 2

Henrique Bursztyn
IMPA

Abstract:

This talk will discuss symplectic geometry in the context of graded manifolds. The main goal is showing how graded symplectic geometry (particularly in degree 2) provides a natural approach to several geometrical structures that have been studied in mathematics and physics in recent years, including Dirac structures, Courant algebroids and generalized complex structures.