

Some problems in geometric homogenization

Luis Caffarelli
University of Texas at Austin

Abstract:

We will discuss several homogenization problems, involving surfaces, or fronts propagating through oscillatory media and some ways to show the existence of effective profiles through geometric considerations.