

Some estimates for the fractional Laplacian in Conformal Geometry

Olivaine Santana de Queiroz
IMECC/UNICAMP

Abstract: We study local properties of solutions for a family of conformally covariant operators that appears in Conformal Geometry. Some estimates such as Harnack type inequalities can be proved using recent results and our hope is that these estimates can be applied in the study of the fractional version of the Yamabe problem.