

Spectral Projected Gradient for Nonnegative Matrix Factorization

Paulo Hubert (IME-USP), Julio M. Stern (IME-USP)

Resumo/Abstract:

We apply the Spectral Projected Gradient method of Birgin and Martinez to the problem of obtaining a reduced rank, nonnegative factorization of a nonnegative real matrix. The factorization is applied on the context of analysis of soundscape data.