

On existence of invariant measures for regular and non-regular g -functions

Ricardo Ferreira¹ and Sandro Gallo¹

¹ Universidade Federal de São Carlos

In this work we study the existence of invariant measures for regular and non-regular g -functions. We explore these questions through examples of literature. We prove that g -functions with an enumerable set of discontinuity points and which satisfy non-nullness have at least one stationary g -measure.