

Gibbs measures and permutations

Nicolás Frevenza<sup>1</sup>, Inés Armendáriz<sup>2</sup>, Pablo A. Ferrari<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Universidad de Buenos Aires

We consider the space of permutations of point processes in  $d$ -dimensional space, and establish sufficient conditions for the existence and uniqueness of Gibbs measures on this space in the high temperature regime, associated to a general potential. We show that these measures are supported on finite cycle permutations.