

On the method of minimal rambling sets of Liao

Lan Wen

Abstract

There is a simple and sometimes very effective method used in the work of Liao, through the notion of the so called minimally rambling set. An even simpler notion that might be taken as an alternative is the so called minimally non-hyperbolic set. We illustrate in this talk this method (though this alternative) and give some recent applications.