

Dual parameterization of Weighted Coloring

Vinícius dos Santos<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> UFMG

We consider a generalization the coloring problem, called weighted coloring, under the perspective of parameterized complexity. We will start with the main definitions concerning parameterized complexity and then briefly present positive and negative results on the weighted coloring problem. In particular, we will show how a kernel can be obtained for the the problem, when parameterized by the dual parameter.