

Homogenization of Liouville Equations beyond stationary ergodic setting

Wladimir Neves¹, Taynara Andrade², Jean Silva³

¹ UFRJ

² UFRJ

³ UFMG

In this talk, we consider the homogenization's problem of the Liouville's equation for non-crystalline materials, namely the coefficients are given by the composition of stationary functions with stochastic deformations. We show the asymptotic equations, which involves both macroscopic and microscopic scales.