

Integral-affine structures and compactification of K3 moduli

Philip Engel

University of Georgia

I will discuss the construction of a geometrically meaningful compactification of the moduli space of degree 2 K3 surfaces. The key step is building a family of integral affine structures on the sphere, which represents a tropicalization of the universal family.