

Mean Values of L-functions for curves over finite fields

Julio Cesar Bueno De Andrade<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> University of Exeter

In this talk, I will describe the problem of computing moments of L-functions associated to hyperelliptic curves over finite fields. I will present some recent development in the subject and its connection with the so-called Euler-Hadamard Hybrid formula. (joint work with S. Gonek and J. Keating).