

Global solvability of real analytic involutive systems on compact manifolds

Jorge Hounie

UFSCAR - Universidade Federal de São Carlos

We will discuss the global solvability of a locally integrable structure of tube type and co-rank one by considering a linear partial differential operator L associated with a real analytic closed 1-form defined on a real analytic closed n -manifold. We deal with a general complex form and give a complete characterization of the global solvability of L .