A two-piece property for free boundary minimal surfaces in the ball

Ana Menezes[1]

[1] Princeton University

In this talk we will prove that every plane passing through the origin divides an embedded compact free boundary minimal surface of the euclidean 3-ball in exactly two connected surfaces. This result gives evidence to a conjecture by Fraser and Li. This is a joint work with Vanderson Lima from UFRGS..