

Nice quasidisks and prime orbit counting.

Juan Rivera-Letelier¹

¹ Rochester University

For a complex rational map, a nice set is somewhat analogous to a Yoccoz puzzle for polynomials. For a non-uniformly hyperbolic map, we show how to construct nice sets that are quasidisks. These are used to establish a prime orbit theorem with a power savings error term. This is a joint work with Zhiqiang Li.