

A tale of homaloidal conjectures and related issues

Aron Simis¹

¹ UFPB, Brazil

I will discuss the homaloidal property of certain polynomials arising as determinants or defining central hyperplane arrangements. The problem relates naturally to ideal theoretic invariants of commutative algebra bringing up questions whose answers I don't know. The material is partly the result of collaboration with various algebraists.