Some results on positive energy for fourth-order relativistic field equations

Jorge Herbert de LIRA[1]

[1] UFC

We discuss a variational approach to describe notions of mass and energy for a fourth-order formulation of Einstein's field equations. We then present some results about the positivity of the mass in terms of Q-curvature. This is joint work with Paul Laurain, Rodrigo Avalos and Nicolas Marque.