On some branching processes with selection

Pablo M. RODRIGUEZ[1]

[1] UFPE, Brazil

In this talk we will discuss two special stochastic processes, which may be seen as branching processes with selection. We will present the motivation behind its formulation and some results related to the existence of phase transition in such processes.