A class of non-globally solvable vector fields on surfaces

Giuliano Zugliani (IMECC)

Abstract

We consider a smooth and non-vanishing complex vector field $L = X + iY$ satisfying condition $(\mathcal{P})$, and we show that if L has a closed one-dimensional orbit on which $X \wedge Y$ vanishes of order 1, then L is not globally solvable.

1