

Lefschetz properties and osculatory behavior of algebraic varieties

Aline Andrade (UFMG)

In this talk we are interested in the study of the Lefschetz properties of Artinian algebras and their relationship with the osculatory behavior of classical algebraic varieties. More specifically our goal is to provide algebraic varieties such that their osculating space do not have the expected dimension by relating them with Artinian algebras failing Lefschetz properties.