

Maya Stein (Universidad de Chile)

Oriented trees and paths in digraphs

How can we ensure that a digraph or oriented graph contains a given oriented tree, or a given oriented path, as a subgraph? One special case are tournaments, but also, conditions on the chromatic number, on the minimum semidegree, and on the number of edges have been proposed. In this talk, we will review the known results, and highlight the open conjectures and problems in this direction.