

A century of holonomy

Robert Bryant

Duke

This introductory talk will survey a history of the origins and theory of holonomy and its applications since its inception in the works of J. A. Schouten and É. Cartan, the early classification works of Berger and Simons, and the modern era where local and global techniques from PDE and geometry have made enormous advances, bringing us up to the century mark.