

Unlikely Intersections of singular foliations

Gabriel Santos Barbosa

IMPA

The goal is to investigate singular holomorphic foliations forming unlikely intersections. I aim to define the concept, understand under what conditions unlikely intersections arise, and what properties we can extract. Additionally, we seek to expand some existing results to a broader range of complex varieties using the new language.