

Deformations of pullback foliations

Pablo Parrella

Universidad de Buenos Aires

In this talk we will discuss some stability properties of certain pullback foliations, both in the global and local settings. Our approach involves Grothendieck's drapeaux scheme and standard deformation theory techniques. We will then present an analog of Schlessinger's theorem on deformations of cones within the foliated context.